SIR,

With reference to G.O.No.P.5405/Cts.76-37-4, dated 30th March 1938, sanctioning the revised form of Register No.IX (Civil), I am directed to state that the Comptroller to the Government has brought to the notice of the High Court that difficulty is being felt in tracing the deposit items in the Treasury Registers when passing for payment cheques drawn by Courts and also in passing refund bills for lapsed deposits of civil Courts as the statements of lapsed deposits contain only Treasury Deposit numbers, while the cheques and statements issued by the Courts contain only the dates of deposit in the Treasury and the numbers of the Receipt Orders of the Courts. He has suggested that civil Courts may be instructed to enter the Judicial Deposit number of the Treasury in the cheques drawn by them and also in the bills for refund of lapsed deposits.

The Judges of the High Court are of opinion that the Judicial Deposit numbers of the Treasury ought to be entered in Register No.IX Judicial Deposit (Civil)-soon after the deposit is made in the Treasury as that information will facilitate the entering of the Judicial Deposit numbers in cheques and also in refund bills of lapsed deposits as required by the Comptroller. It is therefore proposed to add a new Column in Register No.IX for entering the Deposit number of the Treasury. The High Court will issue necessary instructions to the civil Courts to enter the Judicial Deposit numbers of the Treasury in all cheques and also in statements of lapsed deposits and refund bill

I am to request that the Government may be pleased to sanction the further amendment of the form of Register No.IX (Civil) by introducing a fresh Column 7 after the 6th Column in it, and by renumbering the Columns 7 to 12 as 8 to 13 as in the draft amended form enclosed.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. Hammerton

Registrar.
